Work Experience

Fall 2008-Present

Co-Producer, Videographer, Editor Live at The Smell Cold Hands Video DVD release
Organized a four-camera video shoot for a three-night concert featuring fifteen bands. Edited over forty hours of footage. Post responsibilities included title animation, color correction, sound editing, and compression. Authored DVD and co-created package design. Designed website and carried out a multifaceted marketing campaign, bringing DVD to store shelves throughout the US and Europe.

Fall 2007

Director of Photography, Danava Where Beauty and Terror Dance Music Video
Utilized the DVX100B digital camera to shoot an effects and animation heavy music video for the band Danava on Kemado records. Collaborated closely with Director to ensure location footage and green screen footage would integrate effectively. Video played multiple times on MTV2. During its first month on the web, was most-watched video on MTV2.com.

2006-2008

Producer/Director, People Who Do Noise

The feature documentary People Who Do Noise about Portland's experimental music scene released on DVD by Cold Hands Video in July 2008. Oversaw all aspects of production to bring a personal as well as informative digital film to the screen. PWDN has screened at festivals all over the world and has received press in multiple publications. It is currently available on Netflix, and is for sale at multiple retail outlets in the United States and Europe.

Fall 2005-Present

Owner, Adam Cornelius Video Productions

Currently running a one-man production company focused on shooting music concert footage, music videos, weddings, how-to videos, and documentaries. Production package includes DVX100B digital film camera and Final Cut Pro editing software.

2001-Present

Restaurant and Bar Manager, Mississippi Pizza Pub/Atlantis Lounge

Served as Manager, Pizza Cook, Bartender, and Audio Visual tech at a high volume pizza pub/music venue with a full-liquor lounge attached.

1999-2001

Various Film Production Work

Served as grip, lighting, sound, or general PA on multiple productions throughout Florida during the year following my graduation from FSU film school.
